Settlement Class Members not selecting the cash payment of approximately $50, may claim up to $1000 by submitting a valid and timely Claim Form and reasonable supporting documentation for ordinary losses demonstrably incurred, more likely than not, as a result of the Data Incident. Ordinary losses can arise from the following categories:

- (i) Out of pocket expenses incurred as a direct result of the Data Incident, including but not limited to documented bank fees, long distance phone charges, cell phone charges (only if charged by the minute), data charges (only if charged based on the amount of data used), postage, gasoline for local travel, and bank fees, all of which must be more likely than not attributable to the Data Incident, must not have been previously reimbursed or subject to reimbursement by insurance or a third party, and that are reasonably described and supported by an attestation under penalty of perjury, which will be a part of the claim form.
(ii) Fees for credit reports, credit monitoring, or other identity theft insurance product purchased between March 14, 2023, and June 10, 2024 that the claimant attests under penalty of perjury he/she incurred as a result of the Data Incident and not already paid for or reimbursed by a third party. All such fees must be supported by reasonable documentation substantiating the full extent of the amount claimed.

You must submit documentation to obtain this reimbursement.

I have attached documentation showing that the claimed losses were more likely than not caused by the Data Incident.

Table with 4 columns: Cost Type (Fill all that apply), Approximate Date of Loss, Amount of Loss, and Description of Supporting Reasonable Documentation (Identify what you are attaching and why). Includes an example row for Identity Theft Protection Service and three blank rows for additional entries.
